A vibrant, cartoonish underwater scene. In the foreground on the left, a life preserver character with a face, arms, and legs stands on a sandy patch. The top half of the life preserver is orange and has the word "BIKINI" written on it, while the bottom half is red and has "BOTTOM" written on it. The background shows a colorful underwater town with various buildings, a winding path, and several small fish-like characters. The water is a mix of blue and green, with stylized, colorful sea anemones and coral. The overall style is whimsical and playful.
